

Qualification Title: GQA Level 6 NVQ Diploma in Construction Site Management

Qualification Number: 610/1272/5

Qualification Specification

Who is this qualification for?

This qualification is aimed at those who have responsibility for managing Construction sites including the planning and controlling all aspects of specific works on site.

This qualification is at Level 6, although some units may be at different levels. Level 6 qualifications are primarily aimed at those who are fully trained and experienced in a wide range of roles and requires the individual to be actively involved in decision making and have a good understanding of problems that can occur on Construction sites and be able to deal with them.

Candidates will also be required to prove knowledge of legislation, leading teams and maintaining and improving the standards of work.

Because of the wide range of tasks that take place on Construction sites it is not expected that those who have management responsibilities will all do the same activities; the qualification is structured to ensure that there is a high degree of flexibility within the units available, The qualification has been developed in a way to allow employees from companies of all sizes and specialisms equal opportunity to complete.

The qualification has 4 Pathways that are designed to offer relevant structures for those individuals managing sites, with the Pathways covering management of Construction sites under the broad headings of Building and Civil Engineering, Highways Maintenance and repair, Residential Development and Retrofit activities.

Entry requirements

There are no formal entry requirements for learners undertaking this qualification. However, centres must ensure that learners have the potential and opportunity to gain the qualification successfully.
